The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 30. to Tuesday August 2. 1726.

Whitehall, August 1.

THIS Day being the Anniversary of His Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance at the Court at Kensington, of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction; and at Night there were Illuminations, Bonfires, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Paris, Aug. 1, N. S. Letters from Geneva of the 14th past give an Account, that on the 11th the King of Sardinia came to St. Julian: On the 12th at Five in the Morning his Majesty passed in Sight of Geneva towards Thonon; being saluted by Order of the Regents of Geneva with the Discharge of Sixty Pieces of Cannon on their Ramparts. His Majesty lay that Night at Thonon, and on the 13th proceeded to Evian, where he proposes to stay some time, to use the Waters at that Place. On the 15th the Council of Geneva passed a Resolution, to send a Deputation of two of their Members, to compliment his Majesty on his coming into their Neighbourhood, and on the Birth of the young Prince his Grandson.

Hague, August 6, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland are to assemble To-morrow, to resume their Deliberations about settling the necessary Funds for the intended Augmentation of the Forces of this State. The King of Prussia, with the Prince Royal, set out from Wezel the 28th past, to return to Berlin. M. de Lambelly who before the Duke of Ripperda's Disgrace arrived here from Spain, in order to go to Muscovy with a publick Character from the Court of Madrid, set out some Days ago for Amsterdam, designing to imbark there for Bilboa and return to Madrid. Letters from Brussels advise, that on the 30th of last Month Vest-Marshal Zumjungen took upon him the General Command of the Emperour's Forces in the Austrian Netherlands.

Whitehall, August 1.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain unto Sir Charles Farnaby of Kippington near Seven-Oakes in the County of Kent, Kt.
